My dear Shri Prasiddha,

Smt. Vinaya Sardesai will meet you with this note in Bangkok. She is shortly embarking on an extensive tour of South East Asia, Australia and Japan.

Smt. Sardesai is deeply interested in art and culture and I am sure she would greatly enjoy watching Siamese classical dancing -- particularly of sister Ladda if she happens to perform.

I have no doubt that you will extend to her your usual warm courtesies and hospitality and I shall feel grateful for any assistance and guidance you might render her while she is in Bangkok.

Since Smt. Sardesai will be travelling alone by herself she would very much like to stay with some family for a couple of days. Again she is a strict vegetarian like our family and she might find it very difficult to get suitable food at the hotel. I wonder, therefore, if it could be possible for you to accommodate her in your house for two or three days while she is in Bangkok. I have no doubt that you would all greatly like to meet her and spend some time with her. I am mailing you a copy of this letter directly to you and would request you to drop a line to her at Sydney C/o Air India International, Sydney, confirming that it would be convenient for you to accommodate her with you for two or three days during the third week of this month. She shall of course send you a cable from Singapore advising the correct date and flight of her arrival in Bangkok. I am sure you will not mind this trouble which we are giving you and I thank you in anticipation.

I trust sister Ladda, yourself and your children are all keeping very well. My kindest regards to you and also to Shri Sod and Shri Manasputra.

Yours sincerely,

Navnit Parekh
